WEPPA DECLARATION

5. Pursuant to subsections 5(a)(b)(iv) and 5(5) of the Wage Earner Protection Program Act, S.C. 2005, c. 47, s. 1 ("WEPPA"), effective September 18, 2026, 23612179 Limited Partnership (formerly, MTE Logistix Limited Partnership) meets the criteria prescribed by section 3.2 of the Wage Earner Protection Program Regulations, SOR/2008-222.

ENHANCED MONITOR'S POWERS

6. Upon the filing of the Monitor's certificate substantially in form set out in Schedule "A" hereto, confirming that upon the filing of such certificates, there shall be no Management Signatories (as defined in the ARIO) for the Applicants (the "Enhanced Powers Certificate"), notwithstanding any other provision of the ARIO, in addition to the rights and obligations of the Monitor under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act, RSC 1985, c. C-36, as amended (the "CCAA"), the Monitor is hereby empowered and authorized, but not obligated, to act as once in respect of the Property and Business (each as defined in the ARIO) of the Applicants and, without in any way limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Monitor is hereby expressly empowered and authorized to do any of the following where the Monitor considers it necessary or desirable (collectively, the "Monitor's Enhanced Powers"):

   (a) oversee and have access to all elements of the management and operation of the Business (as defined in the ARIO);

   (b) deal with all administrative matters, including to control the Applicants' bank accounts and preparing and administering WEPPA claims with respect to the Applicants' former employees;

   (c) pay from the "Wind-Down Advance" (as defined in the Sale Agreement as approved by the Approval and Vesting Order of Justice Armstrong dated July 20, 2026 (the "Sale Agreement")), in the name of or on behalf of the Applicants or in its own name, as applicable, the amounts, fees, costs and expenses payable in respect of the "Wind-Down Budget" (as defined in the Sale Agreement);

   (d) cause the Applicants to exercise their rights and observe their obligations under the ARIO and all other Orders of the Court in the CCAA proceedings;

   (e) take steps to cause the Applicants, to disclaim any agreements to which any of the Applicants are party in accordance with the CCAA; and

   (f) negotiate, execute, assign, issue and endorse documents of whatever nature in respect of any of the Applicants' Property (as defined in the ARIO) or Business, on behalf of the Applicants, for any purpose, and in each case where the Monitor takes any such actions or steps, it shall be exclusively authorized and empowered to do so, to the exclusion of all other persons, including the Applicants and without interference from any other person.

7. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Order, the Monitor is not and shall not be deemed to be:

   (a) a principal, director, officer or employee of the Applicants;

   (b) an employer, successor employer, or related employer of the employees of the Applicants or any employee caused to be hired by the Applicants by the Monitor within the meaning of any relevant legislation, regulation, common law, or rule of law or equity governing employment, pensions, or labour standards for any purpose whatsoever or expose the Monitor to any liability to any individual arising from or relating to their employment or previous employment with the Applicants; and

   (c) the receiver, assignee, liquidator, administrator, receiver-manager, agent of the creditors or legal representative of the Applicants within the meaning of any relevant legislation, regulation, common law, or rule of law or equity.

8. The Monitor shall incur no liability or obligation as a result of its appointment or the carrying out of the provisions of this Order or any of the powers and authority entrusted to the Monitor herein, save and expect for any gross negligence or wilful misconduct on the Monitor's party. Nothing in this Order shall derogate from the protections afforded to the Monitor by the CCAA, any applicable legislation, or any orders granted in the with CCAA proceedings.

GENERAL

9. The Applicants and the Monitor may from time to time apply to this Court for advice and directions in the discharge of their powers and duties hereunder.

10. Any interested party (including the Applicants and the Monitor) may apply to this Court to vary or amend this Order on not less than seven (7) days' notice to any other party or parties likely to be affected by the order sought or upon such other notice, if any, as this Court may order.

11. Service of this Order may be effected by facsimile, electronic mail, personal delivery or courier. Service is deemed to be effected the next business day following transmission or delivery of this Order.

12. This Court hereby requests the aid and recognition of any court, tribunal, regulatory or administrative body having jurisdiction in Canada or in any foreign jurisdiction, to give effect to this Order and to assist the Applicants, the Monitor and their respective agents in carrying out the terms of this Order. All courts, tribunals, regulatory and administrative bodies are hereby respectfully requested to make such orders and to provide such assistance to the Applicants and to the Monitor, as an officer of this Court, as may be necessary or desirable to give effect to this Order, to grant representative status to the Monitor in any foreign proceeding, or to assist the Applicants and the Monitor and their respective agents in carrying out the terms of this Order.

13. Each of the Applicants and the Monitor be at liberty and is hereby authorized and empowered to apply to any court, tribunal, regulatory or administrative body, wherever located, for the recognition of this Order and for assistance in carrying out the terms of this Order and that the Monitor is authorized and empowered to act as a representative in respect of the within proceeding for the purpose of having these proceedings recognized in a jurisdiction outside Canada.
